Special Dispatch to The Tribune WASHINGTON, May 22.—Sooner or frea Ecuador, both of whom came to town to pay their respects to the new Secretary of State. Señor Vasconez also called upon the Secretary of the Treasury. He was the guest of the Minister of Ecuador and Mme, Elizalde at the legation. They gave a luncheon there for him on Wednesday. Dr. Desvernine stopped at the Shoreham Hotel. Secause he is in mourning, there was no intertaining at the Cuban Legation for him, save the strictly official luncheon given by Secretary Colby at the Shoreham. The Minister of Cuba, Dr. de Cespedes, was a guest at this function, as were David Franklin Houston, Secretary of the Treasury, a number of other American officials and Boaz Long, American Minister to Cuba, who is in Washington on a short leave.
